Virtual – Webinar Link will be sent upon receipt of payment

Over the past two years, due to the COVID-19 public health emergency, the federal government issued several 1135 waivers related to routine life safety code requirements. Now that these waivers have been rescinded, it's time for nursing facilities to return to the basics as it relates to compliance with life safety code requirements. The Mass Senior Care Annual Life Safety Code workshop will include a review of the requirements that have been re-instituted as well as a discussion of fire drill and fire response best practices to ensure nursing facilities are complying. The Department of Public Health will review the top 10 LSC deficiencies and their role within the FSES and the waiver application system. In addition, speakers will provide updates on routine inspections, testing & maintenance.
